Time for Change

TARGET

We are all punks. Our subculture has shocked the established order and constraints of society. We challenge the rules of nature and defy the norms, and have a hell of a time doing it. The High-B Punk was designed to sink deep into that rebellious part of your brain and tell you how it is. Are you a pilot that wants to know the truth? The Punk will expose it.

DESCRIPTION

We are on a mission to put taste, control, and attitude back into gliders. The Punk is a modern-day rebellion against bland paragliders. This new-age wing is an explosion of feel, controllability, performance and fun. It's about respect. We believe gliders that talk are safer. The Punk will speak the truth about the conditions giving you Eyes Wide-Open safety. End propaganda. Become enlightened. Make your own choices. Fly the uncensored Punk.
